On Thursday morning at 8:15am an eleven year old boy was waiting for the school bus on the corner of Parker Road and Dillon Lane. When the bus stopped the driver activated its red lights. Officer Neil investigated the crash, and determined the victim was struck by the passenger side mirror of the car.

"Drivers are reminded they must stop for flashing lights on school busses" said West Linn Police Chief Terry Timeus, "It is also important to exercise caution when driving during the hours kids are going to and coming from school."

"We were very lucky this incident did not have a more tragic outcome" said Sergeant Neil Hennelly, West Linn Police spokesperson.
